FROM WASHINGTON.

The Title to the Site of the Philadelphia Mint Building.

WILL IT BE INVALIDATED IF VACATED?

No Change of Military Policy on the Mexican Border Contemplated—Important Amendment to the Interstate Commerce Act.

The Title to the Site of the Philadelphia Mint.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Representative Holman, chairman of the appropriations committee, will to-day offer in the house the following resolution:

WHEREAS, It is alleged, that the real estate in the city of Philadelphia on which the United States mint is situated is held by title which will expire and terminate when the property shall cease to be used by the United States as the site for the mint; therefore,

Resolved, That the judiciary committee be instructed to inquire into the facts and report to the house the nature of the title by which said property is held by the United States, with authority to send for persons and papers in ascertaining the nature of the title

Mr. Holman's resolution will be offered in consequence of a letter signed by Robert Wilcox in which it is maintained that the property must revert to its original proprietors when ceased to be used as a mint.

Mr. Holman said that he knew nothing of the facts in the matter

Representative Bingham, of Pennsylvania, yesterday made a careful investigation of the matter, and is convinced that there is nothing in Mr. Wilcox's claim Mr. Bingham found that the property was purchased by the United States in 1829 for thirty odd thousand dollars. He examined the deeds and found that the United States held title by absolute purchase. He said that it was simply such an obstruction as comes to all purchases of property in large cities. He will move to amend Mr. Holman's resolution by referring the whole matter to the attorney-general instead of to the judiciary committee.

There Will Be No Change in the Policy Employed by the War Department.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The war department has adopted no new policy concerning the better preservation of order on the Mexican border and, to quote a prominent official of the department "order cannot be entirely maintained, until a railroad is built along the dividing line, thus insuring the quick transfer of troops"

An order has been issued for a new flying telegraph line from Fort McIntosh, Tex., to insure quick transmission of messages from the seat of the trouble, and Lieut. J. E. Maxfield, of the signal corps, has been directed to proceed with its construction.

Beyond this and the employment of extra vigilance there will be no change from the present policy of the department.

There is no truth in the report that the fifth cavalry, now in the Indian territory has been ordered to reinforce the troops now in the field in Texas. Gen. Schofield said yesterday morning that there were already sufficient troops in Texas to suppress an uprising much more formidable than the present appears to be. The three troops of the seventh cavalry will remain there for some months, but the four troops of the third cavalry recently ordered to Fort Riley, Kan., will leave for that post as soon as the present troubles on the border are at an end

An Important Amendment to the Interstate Commerce Act.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Mr. Cullom sat in his seat Thursday ready to spring to his feet in defense of one of the amendments to the commerce act that was up for consideration. He was prepared for a fight, but, somewhat to his surprise, there was not a voice raised in opposition to the bill, and it went through without a dissenting vote The amendment was one which remedies the defect in the law found by the supreme court in the famous Counselman decision. It provides that no person shall be excused from testifying in any criminal case based upon any violation of the interstate commerce act on the ground that his testimony might tend to criminate himself or subject him to penalty or forfeiture. Such person shall not be prosecuted, however, on account of anything which he may testify to in any case, but he shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

(Second Session.)

SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan 6.—To-day's session of the senate was given up exclusively to the discussion of the bill on the subject of the quarantine regulations and its correlative measure, the bill to suspend immigration for one year

Mr. Chandler (rep., N. H.) spoke for about three hours, devoting most of his argument to the last mentioned bill, although the other was really the one that was up for discussion To this latter, however, an amendment was pending to authorize the president to issue a proclamation suspending immigration from countries where cholera may be prevailing.

Mr Chandler treated this proposition as an act of hostility on the part of congress, in imposing responsibility upon the president instead of taking that responsibility itself. He was assured by Mr. Frye (rep., Me.) that the incoming president was not a man to shrink from responsibility, alluding to Mr. Cleveland's position on the subject of the New York scandals This provoked a laugh, and Mr. Chandler deprecated the Maine senator's bringing his witticism into a serious subject. He went on, in the course of his remarks, to speak of the recent entertainment given by the North German Lloyds Steamship Co. to the Gridiron club, and made some sarcastic allusions to the liberality of that company to government officials traveling in Europe.

Arguments against the quarantine bill were made by Senators McPherson (dem., N. J.), Platt (rep., Conn.), Mills (dem., Tex.) and Dolph (rep., Ore.).

Many amendments were offered, some of which were agreed to, the others going over until to-morrow, when the bill comes up as the special order

NOTES

In his prayer this morning the chaplain uttered a special invocation for divine protection for the governors and legislatures of the several states.

The speaker, after the approval of the journal and a fruitless call of committees for reports, stated that on December 17 a bill had been called up by Mr. Outhwaite extending the provisions of the act to provide for the muster and pay of certain officers and men of the volunteer forces. He further stated that upon that date no quorum had voted upon the measure and its consideration had been postponed until day.

Mr. Kilgore (dem., Tex.) suggested that the house had had no authority to make any order for postponement as there had been no quorum present.

The Speaker—No quorum voting.

As he uttered these words the speaker himself could not repress a smile, while a laugh went through the house which was more emphatic when Mr. Reed (rep., Me.) dryly remarked that he hoped that the gentleman from Texas would understand the distinction It was a perfectly legal one.

The bill was passed.

The house then proceeded to the consideration of the unfinished business—being private pension bills coming over from last session. Four or five were passed without opposition; but Mr Kilgore made the point of no quorum on the next, and a call of the house was ordered. One hundred and eighty-six members responded to their names.

Then about twenty-five private pension bills were passed without opposition and at 4:20 o'clock the house adjourned until to-morrow.

Cleveland's Opposition to Edward Murphy

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Since Mr. Cleveland has come out openly against Edward Murphy, Jr., as Hiscock's successor in the senate, Richard Croker, of Tammany hall, has been asked a dozen times a day if he thought it would change the president-elect and his policy against Tammany hall. Mr. Croker has steadily declined to answer this question. Yesterday he spoke about it for the first time. He was asked: "Do you think that if Mr. Murphy is elected senator Mr. Cleveland in return for it will take up a position hostile to Tammany hall?"

Mr. Croker hesitated for a moment and then said he did not think that Mr. Cleveland would do so. He spoke slowly "No," he said, "our friendship for Mr. Murphy will not make Mr. Cleveland hostile to the regular democracy of the state. Mr. Cleveland, is, I think, a man of too broad ideas, a man of too high ideas of political justice to allow himself to take such a step. That is my first reason for thinking so. My second reason is as cogent Tammany hall went to Chicago opposed to Mr. Cleveland We fought every inch of the ground until he was nominated. Then we came out in his support and stood by him to a man until he was elected Now Mr. Cleveland is opposed to us in the person of our candidate for senator, Mr. Murphy.

"The wishes of the regular democracy will be respected by the assembly, and Mr. Murphy will be elected. Mr. Cleveland is not the sort of man to turn on us because our candidate is elected. Common gratitude would be enough, for we did not turn on him when he was victorious. There is much," continued Mr. Croker, in answer to a question, "that is misunderstood about the contest for senator We are not hostile to Mr Cleveland just because Mr. Murphy, our candidate, is not Mr. Cleveland's choice; nor will Mr. Murphy oppose Mr. Cleveland if he is elected, which, of course, goes without saying. Mr. Cleveland does not know Mr. Murphy's strong points. If he knew him as well as I do, in justice to Mr Cleveland I must say I think he would consider Mr. Murphy an able man and one fitted to represent the great state of New York in Washington.

"Mr. Murphy is not an orator, but he has wonderful executive ability. This, together with his other admirable qualifications, will make him a senator to be proud of. Mr. Cleveland will never have cause to regret the fact that the organized democracy of New York put Mr. Murphy up. His election is certain. I think he will get every democratic vote in the assembly."

The Week's Business and the Outlook, as Reported by R. G. Dun & Co.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—R. G Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The business of the new year opens well, though there has hardly been time as yet to get fairly under way In some branches of manufacturing there is a very conservative feeling owing to scantiness of satisfactory orders, but in the textile branches the extraordinary demand creates general confidence in every part of the country, and apparently in almost every branch of business the traders are looking forward to a year of large transactions. But in financial circles the year opens with a considerable feeling of uncertainty, owing to the lowness of gold exports, which will be about $2,000,000 for the current week, and to the doubts about the action of congress The annual reports of various branches of trade come in with fresh evidence of the unsurpassed prosperity and volume of business in 1892, but cast no clear light upon the future, which depends in large degree upon monetary influences.

The government crop report started a little stronger buying, but wheat soon reacted to 77¾ cents, a decline of nearly 1½ cents for the week, western receipts in three days being over 2,000,000 bushels. In spite of as large receipts, corn gained over 1 cent for the week, and oats also, while pork rose $1 and lard 20 cents and hogs 50 cents per 100 pounds. Coffee is unchanged and oil is more strongly, but cotton showed no change, with sales of 300,000 bales Speculation in stocks is depressed by monetary anxiety, although reports of trade and other things continue more favorable Government and other large disbursements make the money market easier, but bankers expect exports of gold to continue for some time

Industrial reports are mainly confined to the unprecedented transaction of last year, but pig iron a weaker tone is manifest, with reports of reduced prices for pig by some southern concerns. Deliveries of rails for the past year were but 1,800,000 tons The capacity outruns the demand for finished products, so that markets are irregular and weak, though in structural and sheet iron large business is in prospect The change in relations of the Lehigh & Reading does not yet affect prices of coal Copper and tin are well supported, but lead rather weak.

The most prosperous year ever known in textile manufacturers leaves the full production of most of the mills sold for months ahead and the new year opens with great strength in woolens and cottons

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number, for the United States, 823; and for Canada, 37, or a total of 860, as compared with a total of 495 for the corresponding week of last year, representing 388 failures in the United States and 42 in the Dominion of Canada

ABSOLUTELY PURE

SCARCITY OF HOGS

The Real Cause of the High Prices of Pork Products.

NINETY DAYS OF INCESSANT RAIN

Interfered with the Planting of Corn and Led to the Sacrifice of the Young Porkers—The Limit Not Yet Reached.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Hogs and packing products reached the highest point in Chicago to-day for years, $10.65 for lard, and Cudahy and Wright were free sellers on the market. The highest established price was $8.85 for May pork, but some sales ran to the figure given above. Many reasons are given for these high prices, but they are all traced to a simple lack of hogs—that is all. "It is only that there are more buyers than sellers," was the sententious explanation given by Charles Wright. "The reasons are simple, yet it is due to an accident that prices are skyrocketing as they are. There are not enough hogs to supply the demand, and the scarcity in the products has got to be made up in price The spring of 1892 was a phenomenal one in a meteorological point It rained ninety days in succession, just as a crop of young pigs was due, and as they are the least cared for of farm animals, they shifted for themselves, which was quite often a very poor shift. Then it rained so long that the farmers began to think they would not have a chance to plant any corn. What to do with the hogs was a question, with no corn to feed them on and a big crop of hogs to feed. They concluded that it would be better to take what they could get for their pork products than run the chances of a lower price. The consequence was that there was a very free movement in pork last summer, which left a slim home contingent.

"Then there is another reason for the high price. When the upward movement commenced lots of brokers sold, thinking that the top had been reached. As the price went on up they cut in again and sold, thinking as before, that the high notch had been reached. Then came another bulge and another cut in, and the folks are awfully short now."

Michael Cudahy said that the basis of high prices for pork, ribs and lard was simply a scarcity of the original article. He would not give any anterior reasons.

Col. Favorite, Armour's right-hand man, said: "There is a short supply of hogs, both in the city and the country, and, according to the evidence, the supply, or lack of supply, will continue for some time."

As long ago as last March John Cudahy and Charles Wright commenced buying pork and ribs, and continued to buy in the face of extremely large stocks. Other packers laughed at what was then deemed foolishness in buying, and on every advance sold to Cudahy and Wright, selling not only against hogs bought from day to day, but also selling short. It is now a case in which the hogs have not put in an appearance and some of the packers are short.

The first big trouble arose when they found that these two gentlemen had a corner on October ribs and put the price up to $12. T. J. Ryan was caught in the squeeze and the trouble, or part of it, is still in litigation. That was supposed to be the culmination of the deal, but for some time past the receipts of hogs at various points have decreased one-half from the receipts in the corresponding weeks of the previous year, and it was in anticipation of such a state of affairs that these two gentlemen sold.

Yesterday Cudahy and Wright were free sellers, and it is thought that they unloaded over 50,000 barrels of pork through their brokers. Schwartz-Dupee sold about 20,000 barrels, and Cudahy's brokers about half that amount Capt Taylor and Mr. Robson were selling all day Wright followed suit in person

A WORLD'S FAIR BALL.

A High-Toned Society Event at the Missouri State Capital.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 7.—The Cole county and Jefferson City World's Fair association last night gave a grand ball and supper in St. Peter hall. The event had long been looked forward to in society circles and brought together a brilliant assemblage, composed of the beauty and chivalry of the city, and elite of the capitol, including the governor and Mrs. Francis, all the state officers and their wives, judges of the supreme court and many members of the senate and house. The object of the ball is to raise money for purchasing furniture and furnishing the administration building at the World's fair at Chicago.

Arrested for Using the Mails to Circulate Counterfeit Money.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 7.—Morris Lane was yesterday arrested here for using the United States mails to do a business of circulating counterfeit money. A large quantity of the queer was found in his room. By the arrest of Lane, the United States authorities believe they have caught the leader of the gang who has been for the last eight months flooding Missouri with counterfeit bills so perfect in execution that they have almost defied detection. He was caught by means of decoy letters.

No Cholera Germs in the Arkansas Penitentiary.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 7.—Dr. Geddings, of the Marine hospital service, has completed his investigation and forwarded his report to Washington. He failed to find a single cholera germ in the discharges of deceased convicts. The disease was caused by the filthy condition of the penitentiary, which has been thoroughly cleaned and fumigated.

Capt. Schroeder's Statement.

HAMBURG, Jan. 7.—Capt. Schroeder of the Hamburg-American line steamer Bohemia has made a formal report of his encounter with the Cunarder Umbria and his unsuccessful effort to tow the Umbria into port. Capt. Schroeder states:

"We met the Umbria at 7 o'clock on the morning of December 24, in lat. 48 n., long. 48 w. The Umbria was flying the white flags with three balls, a sign of distress. The Bohemia at once answered the Umbria's signals. The Umbria asked us to tow her to New York. We offered to tow her to Halifax. The Umbria replied: 'Halifax is a dangerous port for us to make.' We then responded: 'We will take you to New York' We then attached two new steel hawsers to the Umbria, the Umbria's thick wire cable being added to strengthen the connection. We towed the Umbria along slowly, everything holding firm. The wind was northeast and the sea was rough. About 7 o'clock in the evening the weather became stormy and the air was obscured by squalls of snow. Both vessels labored heavily. At 11:45 o'clock first the starboard hawser and then the port hawser broke. We signaled to the Umbria with lights and by blowing the siren. There was no response and the Umbria vanished out of sight. The wind shifted to the northwest, blowing nearly a gale. We hove to until morning, but saw no vessel and concluding that there was no prospect of being of any assistance, we proceeded on our voyage."

DESTROYED BY ICE.

A Heavy Gorge Above Cincinnati Lets Go,

CARRYING DESTRUCTION BEFORE IT.

Coal Barges and Floats Caught in the Immense Pack and Carried Down to Destruction—The Loss Will Exceed $100,000.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 7.—Thirteen years ago an ice gorge broke up at this point on the Ohio river with great destruction to property. Last evening a gorge broke with nobody knows what loss to boats and coal fleets. Heavy ice has been floating and forming up in the Ohio river for the past two or three days. No gorge was formed until at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The stage of the water here is fifteen feet. The ice gorged between the Louisville & Nashville bridge and the Cincinnati Southern railway bridge. Floating ice came down and joined the gorge. Below the river was clear. In this immense raft were locked all the coal fleets, the nine packets and several tow boats. At 4:30 o'clock this immense body of ice began to move in a solid mass. The packets and tow boats escaped with little or no injury. On the other hand, every coal fleet suffered. The principal destruction is to the following: The Pittsburgh Coal Co., four barges and two floats, value, $10,000; Collier, Budd & Co., four barges and several floats, value, $10,000.

These were on the Ohio side of the river. Just opposite them at Ludlow, Ky., Mr. Bush lost sixteen barges valued at $40,000. Seven miles farther down the river is Addison on the Ohio side of the river. Here two barges and three floats have been taken away, valued at $10,000.

These are all the losses definitely ascertained. Other inevitable incidental losses are estimated at $20,000, making a total of $100,000.

But the danger is not over, and the situation is still threatening. In the front of the upper gorge are located the coal boats and barges which have not gone down. Behind them is three miles of ice. There seems scarcely a possibility of saving any of the property in this pack of ice. The river above is open, but ice is floating heavy.

The arrival of the United States man-of-war Monocacy assisted in maintaining peace.

Pushing Commercial Negotiations.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 7.—The Belgian government has asked France whether the rejection of the proposed commercial treaty with Switzerland, to which the French chamber of deputies recently refused consent, implies a similar refusal on the part of France to treat liberally with Belgium Pending a reply from France, the Belgian government is vigorously pusing commercial negotiations with other European countries and also with the United States.

NOTHING SO GOOD for the CHILDREN.

The universal testimony of those who have used Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure is that for the ailments of childhood it is the best thing in the world. The following from a worthy resident of St. Louis shows that it always produces the desired result:

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 7, 1892.

Sylvan Remedy Co.—Gentlemen: I want to say to you for the benefit of the public that I have used your Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure for my little girl and boy and I claim that it has saved the life of my little girl. She cut her teeth on the lungs and was very bad. Nothing gave her relief until I used your Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure and then she got better right away. My little boy had whooping cough but I had no trouble with him for I used your Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure. Any mother that has a child with whooping cough or any lung trouble, let her get a bottle of your Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure and she will save herself many a dollar; not that alone, but save her child's life, which is more than all the world to a mother. Hoping that this will be of benefit to the public, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
MRS ELLEN DUSTER,

SAMUEL GOMPERS is in favor of abolishing the steerage for immigrants entirely and the total restriction of immigration for one year.

THE new Michigan legislature proposes to promptly repeal the so called "Miner law" under which all but two of the electors of that state were chosen this year by congressional districts.

TAMMANY has been accorded the right of the line of the civic portion of the parade at the inauguration. Somebody seems determined to crown Tammany, Murphy and all down the throat of the man who is better than his party.

A SEVENTEEN year-old-boy who works in a bicycle repair shop in Brooklyn has invented a bicycle skate which is simply a skate attachment to the front wheel of an ordinary safety bicycle. The propelling power is in the hind wheel.

THE equal suffrage association, in Kansas City, has formally condemned train skirts, and has arbitrarily declared in favor of skirts that in no case shall approach the ground at a closer range than three inches. Other associations should take note of the new reform.

TERMS may be Democrats, Republicans, Socialists, Populists and Anarchists —in Chicago; and there may be factions within each of these district organizations, but when it comes to an opinion as to how many congressmen Cook county is entitled, under the new appointment, there seems to be a wonderful and spontaneous uniformity to the action of the gray matter in these different and otherwise discordant brains. They all, with one accord, say Cook county is entitled to seven.

THE Democratic press still continues to charge that the Republicans are trying to steal the United States senate; but they carefully avoid mentioning the fact that a Democratic governor in New Jersey, is pardoning out of the penitentiary, the small army of Democrats who were sent there for election frauds, and they also forgot to mention that Gov. Flower has just appointed to the supreme branch, in New York, a man whose qualifications for that position, is the fact that he helped to steal the New York legislature.

SPRINGFIELD Journal: Illinois passes out of Republican control out of debt, and with a large surplus in the treasury. In Tennessee the condition is very different. At the outset of the legislative session the people are informed that the state will have to borrow $200,000 to meet the semi-annual interest on its debt. The administration of state affairs has always been in Democratic hands. The Memphis Appeal-Avalanche in discussing the situation says the people are getting very weary of the continuance of this sort of management, and remarks that "there is a 'plentiful lack' of information on the part of those charged with the financial administration as to what the revenues and expenditures are." Imagine the people of Illinois submitting to such conduct of the state government! In this state every citizen knows exactly where the money goes, even though it may be only the expenditure of two cents for a postage stamp.

THE Chicago Evening Journal gets it down about right when it says, Clayton Crafts took up the gravel of the speaker of the state house of representatives yesterday, for the second time, and made it the occasion of giving his party some good advice, mixed with a little political buncombe. He reminded his fellow Democrats that with their victory has come responsibility; but that won't alarm or weary the average politician of that party. He doesn't know what it is. The speaker said further that it became them "to illustrate to the people of this great commonwealth that their officials are purer and wiser and their principles more conducive to good government than those they have denounced." That, Mr. Speaker, will be an impossible thing to do—even though your associates are, as you urge them to be, as bold in carrying out their principles as they were in making them. The so-called principles of your party are mostly mythical except that one which calls for the spoils of office—in following that one there will be no lack of boldness."

CONGRESSMAN SCOTT charges that the administration has postponed the erection of public buildings, voted by congress, in its effort to prevent depletion of the treasury. It is very remarkable that the average Democrat goes into a state of frenzy over the fact that there will be a reasonable balance in the treasury when the Democrats come into power. The present Democratic congress, by its extravagance, has done what it could to bankrupt the treasury, but it has failed, and on the 4th of March the Democratic party will have to shoulder the responsibilities of conducting public affairs. They ought to assume that responsibility like men and statesmen; but instead of doing that, there is every indication that they are trying to devise plans by which they can lay the blame for their own shortcomings on the Republican party. They may be able to deceive some of the more ignorant people in this way, but the intelligent masses will expect the Democratic party to abandon its past methods of whining about public affairs and charging the Republican party with inefficiency, and get down to business and show the country whether it can make the country more prosperous than the Republicans have made it. This they declared they would do if given power. They now have the power, and the country wants them to keep their promises and not make excuses.

Fined for Being Killed.

Chicago Mail: The law that limits the value of a human life to $5,000 ought to be the first wiped from the statute book. It ought to be the chief topic of the governor's message. It ought to be abrogated forthwith regardless of party. Its expungement ought to have been incorporated in the platform of every party that nominated state candidates last year.

No month passes that does not see in the courts of this country some man mulcted by amateur reasoning in a smaller amount than the $5,000; while like time out off in his prime leaves as a sole heritage the right to recover what at the most is less than $8 a week. He may have been a man worth millions to the state, a Lincoln or a Grant; he may have been able to earn, as George Gould did, $5,000,000 in four years; he may have left as charges upon the state a brood of little ones and a helpless widow; he may have been slaughtered under circumstances of peculiar atrocity—the petty $5,000 is the maximum that may be recovered in what are miscalled courts of justice.

It is doubtful if a law so brazen in its protection of iniquity, so desperately opposed to human rights, is constitutional.

Suppose the legislature fixed a value on a man's property, saying $5 000 as all that could be recovered in a suit under a contract! Is it not preposterous? But who values his goods more than his life? A property limitation opens the door to the grossest frauds. Already it is whispered that the low value of a life has made it cheaper to kill than to maim, and that life after life flickers and goes out through corporate economy.

Do not fine a man's family because he was killed. Make the negligent corporation pay full value for the lives they take, even as they have to pay for the land they take. Don't be necessary to murder.

Don't Want His Ox Gored.

The new senator from Louisiana is of course a Democrat and a ranting free trader—that is to say he, like other southern senators, is anxious to remove the protective tariff duties from those foreign goods the like of which are made in the north and to protect which these duties are applied, but opposed to removing those tariffs which protect southern industries. This senator is opposed to the removal of the present sugar bounty unless sugar is put on the dutiable list. Here is Democratic consistency for you, and yet it has been a common thing with these southern people, and they are the power within the Democratic party that commits that party to free trade. When it comes to a free trade tariff these people ought not insist upon protective duties on sugar, rice, southern fruits and tobacco. Either these southern leaders ought to be consistent or the northern Democrats ought to be.

JUST FULL of improvements — Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. To begin with, they're the smallest, and the easiest to take. They're tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Every child is ready for them.

Then, after they're taken, instead of disturbing and shocking the system, they act in a mild, easy and natural way. There's no chance for any reaction afterward. Their help lasts. Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

They're put up in glass vials, which keeps them always fresh and reliable, unlike the ordinary pills in wooden or pasteboard boxes.

And they're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

It is said of the late Jacob Henrici, the venerable chief of the Moonshiners, that his life was as free from guile as it he had never come in contact with the world.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. For Sale by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.

A MAN knife, said to be over a hundred years old, and resembling an student's lancet, was presented to the postmaster at Bangor, Me., just after the election. It was labeled; "Adlai's ax." Across the blade in black letters were the words: "The melancholy days have come."

A Mother's Mistake.

Mothers frequently make a mistake in neglecting the cough of a child. A Fort Wayne, Ind., lady writes: My little daughter, 6 years old, had a severe cough but as it was nothing unusual I thought nothing of it, and allowed it to run on for four or five weeks, when it became so obstinate she began losing flesh. I called in a physician who treated her three weeks without benefit. A neighbor insisted upon my trying Ballard's Horehound Syrup; it relieved her from the first dose and she began gaining flesh rapidly, and when we had used two bottles her cough had entirely disappeared. I would not be without it. It does not constipate my children. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is free from opiates. It's the most soothing Throat and Lung medicine in the world. Price 25c and $1.00. LOOK AT LAPE.

Organized Labor Against Him—Who Will Get the Place?

The friends of Hon. B. K. Durfee are not without hope. They believe that he is yet likely to secure the appointment from Altgeld as member of the state board of railroad and warehouse commissioners, and that he will draw the salary of $3,000 a year. Some weeks ago it was said that Mr. Durfee's prospects were very bright, but soon after Charley Lape of the Wabash, alleged to represent organized labor, came to the front, but recently there has developed strong opposition to Lape.

INTERVIEW.

The following interview with one of the grand officers of the railroad employes organization more fully explains the situation:

"Altgeld first led us to believe that he would give us one of the three members on that board. To our committees who called on him he spoke to the same effect. He even sent for our committees, asking them to call on him to confer as to that question. He has appointed no one yet, but he declines to appoint the man whom we had selected, ex-Representative W. E. Barnes, who is now working on his engine on the Illinois Central road. Barnes was rejected because when in the house he championed the Employers' Liability bill. His candidacy for the place was pushed by the engineers, firemen, coal heavers and others.

"Altgeld said: 'Name several men for me to select from.' The names of J. H. Welsh of Chicago, an engineer on the Rock Island road, and of John Kirk of Joliet, a switchman on the Chicago and Alton road, were then presented. Now these three men are in the field, but it seems the working men will not be recognized, but that corporations will be. Promises were made that of the three men appointed to this board one should be a business man, one a farmer, and one a railroad employe. From the best information we can obtain Altgeld will appoint Ald. Cohen, who is a contractor and a representative of the corporate interests of the stock yards; Cantrell from southern Illinois, who is a corporation lawyer, and Charles F. Lape, a railroad official, assistant master mechanic of the Wabash at Springfield, and a man who does not belong to any labor union, but, in fact, opposes them."

The appointments of the new governor will probably be announced during the coming week.

Whist Party.

A most delightful whist party was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. W. B. Chambers at her home on North Church street between the hours of 2:30 and 5 p. m. Drive whist was the game. The first prize, a fancy silver spoon, was won by Mrs. O. B. Gorin, and the second prize, a silver pin, was taken by Mrs. E. D. Bartholomew. Refreshments were served on the card tables. Mrs. Chambers was assisted in receiving by her daughters, Mrs. Albert Barnes, Mrs. L. L. Race and Miss Jennie Chambers. The guests were Mesdames J. K. Warren, E. D. Bartholomew, Geo. S. Durfee, B. K. Durfee, O. B. Gorin, P. M. Pratt, J. M. Clokey, M. M. Goodwin, Edward Carter, W. J. Quinlan, J. E. Bering, J. M. Maris, James Millikin, W. E. Nelson, R. L. Wolston, Samuel Young, B. G. McReynolds, V. G. Hatch, W. R. Abbott, Cass Chenoweth, H. C. Johns, Wm. Barnes and F. L. Hays. Regrets were received from Mesdames Catto and Voorhies.

Decatur Affected.

The President has decided upon the scope of the proposed extension of the civil service law. He will in a day or two issue an order putting all free delivery postoffices under the operation of the law. Only the largest postoffices are now under civil service regulation. The extension will protect clerks and carriers in all of the small offices which have free delivery. The effect will be to put fifteen or twenty postoffices in Illinois under civil service and to disappoint the hopes of a good many Democrats. Will the Decatur force stay?

Invited.

This morning Captain Grist of Decatur Division, Uniform Rank, K. P., received a richly embossed symbolic invitation for himself and the division to attend the first annual ball of Division 63, to be held in the Scroggin opera house at Mt. Pulaski on Thursday evening, January 19th. The music will be by Prof. French's orchestra. Sir Knights Bekemeyer, Vetters, Snyder and Vanderleith are members of the principal committees. No doubt Decatur Pythians will be represented at the ball on the historical hill.

Review Office Fire.

Old papers too near the fire box of the up-right boiler in the Review office last evening caused a big blaze and a roar for the wooden partition and ceiling, drawing a big crowd, and calling out the entire fire department. The No. 1 Chemical crew saved the day and the Review escaped with slight damage. John Drennan was slightly scorched on the hands and face by attempting to form himself into a hollow square to put out the fire alone. It was to hot for him and he fled to a cooler place.

A Noted Musical Event.

The Thomas Chicago Orchestra concert at the Grand next Thursday evening, Jan. 12, should attract attention from all classes of our citizens. While the program will be popular in character it nevertheless includes some of the most charming compositions of the great masters. Mr. Thomas' well known skill in devising programs is clearly exhibited in the selections chosen for this concert. This will be the musical event of the season.

Tom at Chicago.

Tom Ponting, of Mowequa, Ill., marketed two loads of big Hereford stags that made $4.50. They were bought here last fall at $2.15, and yet Uncle Tom fancies they did not pay for all that fancy feed he provided for the lot. But then some men are never satisfied.—Chicago Journal, 6th.

A PROMISING PATENT.

Bloomingtonians Invent a Device that Fills a Long-Felt Want in the Household.

Mr. Fred Smith, manager of the Consolidated Tank Line, has recently patented an oil can which promises a fortune. With this can it is absolutely impossible to spill any oil while filling lamps. Once the lamp is full, no more oil can be forced from the can. Prof. Graham, of the Wesleyan, is interested in the invention with Mr. Smith, and they have been offered a loan of $7,000 without interest for two years by enterprising citizens of Gibson, if they will agree to establish a factory there. They prefer to locate in Bloomington, and will accept a similar offer here, giving the patent and machinery a security—Bloomington Bulletin.

A Plea for English Sparrows.

The English sparrow has found a much needed friend in the Pennsylvania Ornithologist association, according to the Detroit Free Press. At the last meeting of the association Dr. Hazzard took up the cause of the much-abused bird, and while he admitted that he had been guilty in times past of most of the sins laid to his charge, declared that he is reforming. In the course of his address he cited many very interesting facts to show that the "pest," as he is commonly called, is becoming much less aggressive and more considerate than he was. The song-birds, the robins, woodpeckers, bluebirds and yellow warblers whom he is charged with having driven away from the cities are returning each year in increasing numbers and building their nests in the accustomed spots; and this, the doctors think, is strong testimony to the improvement in the habits and disposition of the sparrow.

The doctor is right, but there is still abundant room for improvement. It would not be a bad idea to form a society for the encouragement of the sparrow in his endeavors to reform himself; and effort might very profitable be spent in the direction of teaching him to be cleaner and less pugnacious. If he was clean and peaceable and would give the other birds a fair chance he would be an interesting visitor, especially in the winter, when birds are scarce. How much of the improvement the doctor has found is due to the increasing substitution of the sparrow for the real bird he does not say; and perhaps it is not best to raise that question.

Great Show To-Night.

The famous Howard Athenæum Star Specialty Co. will be seen at the Grand to-night. It is larger and better than ever. Miss Bertoldi, the wonderful contortionist, whose work created such a furore here last year, is still with the company. Kara, the handsome Belgian juggler, and A. O. Duncan, the ventriloquist, are also old favorites who are retained. The new members are Marguerite Fish Baby Benson, who was the original Cinderella in "The Crystal Slipper," assisted by Charles Warren, the eccentric comedian, James Warren and Alden in new songs and funny saying; Will H. Fox, in his musical burlesque, "Padewhicki;" the De Forrests, in "Dog Dancing;" Carrie Joy, the greatest of English ballad singers, and Servais Le Roy, the great Belgian conjurer.

New Firm and New Goods.

Davidson and Eyman, the new grocery firm next door to Imboden's meat market, are starting out with encouraging prospects. The firm is running a first-class store, and keeps the goods the people want. They are making a specialty of fresh vegetables of all kinds, including lettuce, celery, cauliflower and parsley, which they have on sale now every day, and also oysters in can or bulk, as well as canned goods of all kinds, fresh country butter and eggs and everything carried by all first-class grocery houses. The new house is entitled to the attention of our people. jan5-d3w

Opera Comique.

A New York correspondent says in speaking of "Corinne," who appears at the Grand Tuesday evening, Jan. 10: Through all the surprising excellence of her movements, songs, gestures, looks and by-plays, there was ever present that sublime beauty and tenderness, of positive purity and guilelessness that belong only to her whose spirit has no more been tarnished by the ill humors of the world than a ray of rosy sunlight of the morning has been affected by the pestilent vapors within which it had been shrouded the previous night.

In the Push.

George W. Powers has added a new feature to his popular boot and shoe house in Haworth Block. He has secured the services of Mr. Hammond, a skilled New York shoemaker, and that gentleman has a department at the store where fine repair work is done promptly and well. No waits. All work done without delay.

Vacated.

Governor and Mrs. J. W. Fifer left for Bloomington, taking with them their classic household effects. Mrs. Fifer will remain in Bloomington, but the governor will return to-day. The executive mansion is now ready for the occupancy of Governor-elect Altgeld, but he has not yet sent word as to when he will take possession.—Springfield Journal 6th.

Altgeld will probably move in next week. In the meantime Gov. Fifer will be a guest at the Leland.

Gave Bail.

Yesterday Peter White, held for assault on a party named Thomas, gave bail in the sum of $400 for his appearance at the January term of court, and was released from custody. Mrs. Carter, daughter of Mr. White, and Mr. Robinson were accepted as sureties.

Draw Your Own Conclusion.

Mr. J. O. Davenport, manager of the Fort Bragg Redwood Co., Ft. Bragg, Cal., has this to say of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy: "I used it for a severe cold and cough and obtained immediate relief. THE JAIL CASES.

Sheriff Perl's Prisoners Waiting to Secure Liberty.

Court session is a time of special interest to all litigants, but none give court matters more earnest consideration than the jail-birds, who are held for various infractions of the law, and remain in jail, involuntary guests of Sheriff Perl, because they cannot give bail. There are now thirteen persons in the county jail waiting judgment. They will probably get it as soon as Judge Vail can reach the cases on the docket. Those now in custody are:

John Caldwell, robbery.
John Tyler, robbery.
James Canfield, confidence game.
Josie Dennis, robbery.
James Woodruff, burglary and larceny.
Reuben Spurlock, burglary and larceny.
D. F. Mitchell, larceny.
Ellis Murphy, larceny.
Peter Smith, burglary and larceny.
Otto Farro, burglary and larceny.
Hattie Mannaugh, lewd house.
Perry Gray, burglary.
John Day, attempted outrage.
John Hufferd, attempted outrage.
George Gephart, petit larceny.
William Heinz, burglary and larceny.

Parties arrested and now out on bail are: L. H. Strohm, of Sunday Sun notoriety; Laura Brown and Josie King, for keeping lewd houses, and Peter White, for assault. They will appear at the opening of court Monday, and attend every day.

Other parties in jail serving out sentences are as follows: George Powers, five months for assault; Lon Rude, 30 days for assault; George Downey, $48 fine for flourishing weapon on train, committed; Peter and George Smith, fined $20 for assault and committed; John Shay, vagrancy, six months; James Gay, vagrancy, 20 days; John Ray, vagrancy, 20 days; Joe Smith, vagrancy, 25 days.

THE THIRTEEN CLUB.

Dancing Party at the Home of Miss Marian Ewing

Last night from 9 to 1 o'clock the members and invited friends of the Thirteen Club were entertained by Miss Marian Ewing at her home on Forest avenue. The occasion was one of great pleasure. Dancing to the music of the Opera orchestra was the diversion and delicious refreshments were served. The company included Misses Bessie Warren, Lucetta Ullrich, Lincie Darfee, Mabel Darfee, Alethea Fuller, Clara Eyman, Grace Shellabarger, Jennie Chambers, Belle Ewing, Marian Ewing, Frank and Edward Powers, Lewis Eyman, Henry Prather, Will Ennis, Guy Parke, Arthur Rice, James T. Roberts, Mr. Oldham, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers, Will Linn, Rev and Mrs. Joseph DeForest.

NO GAME

The Champaign Foot-Ball Team Fails to Materialize.

It was expected that the Decatur and Champaign foot-ball teams would torture the leather ephers at the Trotting Park this afternoon in a friendly championship game, but early this forenoon word was received that the Champaign team could not come over on account of the inclement weather. The game has been postponed indefinitely. It will occur some day.

TROUBLE WITH GAS

More Explosions at Pittsburg and Chicago

Swindled the Farmers.

A telegram states that the farmers of Piatt county have been extensively swindled by J. O. Nichols, representing himself as agent for the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance company He wrote policies for them and took their notes for the premiums, amounting to over $1,000, and sold the notes to the bank. The farmers have heard nothing of Mr. Nichols or their policies, as the agreement called for. E. H. Elworth, the Chicago manager, writes one of the victims that Nichols was not an agent for the company.

True as Steele.

Patrick Henry, the American Patriot and orator, in the Virginia convention in 1765 said. "I have but one lamp by which my feet are guided, and that is the lamp of experience. I know of no way of judging of the future, but by the past." Let this standard be applied and as you have always been treated fairly by the Ed. Deuz & Son clothing house in the past, you may rely on all future orders for matchless clothing which you may place with them.

"MAY BE CALLED OUT."

The Local Militiamen in Something of a Nervous State.

The regular meeting of the Decatur Guards, Illinois National Guard, was held last night at the Armory, when Lieut.-Col. Frank P. Wells inspected the troops, and found the boys, arms and accoutrements in good shape for service. Captain Colladay was in command. As usual the Captain addressed the Guards, and before he closed he remarked that the Guards should continue to be faithful in attendance and drill, as they might be called out at any time. He had often said that before, but no special weight has been given to the words. This time, however, the boys have given the warning more serious thought, and yet there is no trouble ahead which can be devined just now. Possibly there was no more meaning than usual in the warning.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. D. Holland is in Chicago on business.

Katie Emmett, in her new play, "Kilarney," has still an opportunity to don a boy's costume as in "The Waifs of New York." The dual role of Kittie Burke and Terry Doyle is said to fit her like a glove, and her work as the clumsy country lad keeps the house in a roar of laughter.

A Favorite.

Christmas was Corinne's birthday, and the "double event" was celebrated in great style by the Rimbell Opera Comique company, then playing at Kansas City The little star received a check for $1,000, a solitaire diamond ring, and and a large floral piece from Mrs. Kimball, a diamond bracelet from H. H. Jacobs, a set of Shakespeare's work from Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stahl, silver perfume atomizer from Frank Hayden, solid gold tips for shoes from Eugene G. E. Jacoard, postual works from A. AN AFTERNOON FIRE on East Cerro Gordo Street Caused Damage to the Extent of $1500.

An alarm was turned in about 1 o'clock to-day to the fire department calling them to No. 151 East Cerro Gordo street to extinguish the flames in the house occupied by Messrs. Waddell Swartz and Stivers and their families. The fire started in the north west corner of the house. A stove setting too near the corner of the room ignited the woodwork and after getting a good start the flames ran up to and in the garret, where the roof caught fire. The fire department boys quickly responded to the call and fought bravely. They are still engaged on the building. The roof and upper rooms of the residence are burned and damaged by the water and flames, entailing a loss of $1,000. The property is owned by O. H. and Frank Curtis and is fully insured.

The household effects of the tenants were destroyed to the extent of nearly $500. Messrs. Waddell and Stivers are the proprietors of the livery stable just across the street.

Hunger Will Soon Drive Them Back to Work.

Berlin, Jan. 7.—The strikers in the Saar and other mining districts number 93,000, and include many women, who are determined to fight to the bitter end.

Many of the men are anxious to return to work. At meetings held yesterday those present were chiefly women. There is much suffering among the strikers, and it is thought that hunger will soon drive them back to work.

Five Years for Manslaughter.

Knox, Ind., Jan. 7.—The jury in the trial of Ernestine Kersting for assisting her mother in murdering her stepfather, Nicholas Gerardy, near San Pierre, a small town west of here, on the night of September 1, 1892, returned a verdict at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, after being out fifteen minutes. The defendant was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to five years in the reformatory. The defense asked for a new trial and will get it.

An Absconding Bank Teller Arrested.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 7.—William H. Pope, teller of the City national bank of this city, who on March 1, 1890, absconded with $70,000 of the bank's funds, has been arrested at Starke, Fla. He has been positively identified by Mr. Joseph I. Tattenkampf, agent for the Louisville & Nashville road at Jacksonville, Fla., formerly of this city. Detectives left yesterday afternoon to bring the prisoner home.

Diphtheria in Indiana Mining Towns.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 7.—The secretary of the board of health yesterday received a report from Coal Bluff and Fontanet, mining towns in this county, that malignant diphtheria is raging all through that country, and that the number of cases is increasing daily. The epidemic which prevailed in this city to the extent of 600 cases and nearly 100 deaths up to January is now abating.

LOGAN LETTER.

The Republican is indebted to J. T. Roberts, dealer in grain, provisions and stocks, with correspondents in Chicago, New York, Minneapolis and St. Louis, for the following. J. T. Logan & Co.'s market letter received over the Roberts private wire:

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 7, 1893.

The wheat market has been steady with narrow fluctuations. Lowest for May 78⅝, highest 79 It closed at 78⅞. We cannot add anything to our views expressed for the last few days. On declines of about a cent it is safe to buy for as much profit. Corn opened at about last night's close, 46⅝, and ranged between that point and 46¾. Trade was light and almost entirely local. The tone steady and the tendency seems higher. Oats dull and neglected. May closed 34⅝.

The provision market continues in the same nervous state. Local longs have been free sellers on the advance, but the market nevertheless closes at practically the highest point of the day. We require more hogs to put the market down. Estimated hogs for Monday 20,000; for next week 145,000. Closing price May, $18.70. May lard $10.77. Ribs, $9 67.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Title to the Site of the Philadelphia Mint Building.

WILL IT BE INVALIDATED IF VACATED?

No Change of Military Policy on the Mexican Border Contemplated—Important Amendment to the Interstate Commerce Act.

The Title to the Site of the Philadelphia Mint.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Representative Holman, chairman of the appropriations committee, will to-day offer in the house the following resolution:

Whereas, It is alleged that the real estate in the city of Philadelphia on which the United States mint is situated is held by title which will expire and terminate when the property shall cease to be used by the United States as the site for the mint; therefore,

Resolved, That the judiciary committee be instructed to inquire into the facts and report to the house the nature of the title by which said property is held by the United States, with authority to send for persons and papers in ascertaining the nature of the title

Mr. Holman's resolution will be offered in consequence of a letter signed by Robert Wilcox in which it is maintained that the property must revert to its original proprietors when ceased to be used as a mint.

Mr. Holman said that he knew nothing of the facts in the matter

Representative Bingham, of Pennsylvania, yesterday made a careful investigation of the matter, and is convinced that there is nothing in Mr. Wilcox's claim Mr. Bingham found that the property was purchased by the United States in 1829 for thirty odd thousand dollars. He examined the deeds and found that the United States held title by absolute purchase. He said that it was simply such an obstruction as comes to all purchases of property in large cities. He will move to amend Mr. Holman's resolution by referring the whole matter to the attorney-general instead of to the judiciary committee.

There Will Be No Change in the Policy Employed by the War Department.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The war department has adopted no new policy concerning the better preservation of order on the Mexican border and, to quote a prominent official of the department "order cannot be entirely maintained, until a railroad is built along the dividing line, thus insuring the quick transfer of troops"

An order has been issued for a new flying telegraph line from Fort McIntosh, Tex., to insure quick transmission of messages from the seat of the trouble, and Lieut. J. E. Maxfield, of the signal corps, has been directed to proceed with its construction.

Beyond this and the employment of extra vigilance there will be no change from the present policy of the department.

There is no truth in the report that the fifth cavalry, now in the Indian territory has been ordered to reinforce the troops now in the field in Texas. Gen. Schofield said yesterday morning that there were already sufficient troops in Texas to suppress an uprising much more formidable than the present appears to be. The three troops of the seventh cavalry will remain there for some months, but the four troops of the third cavalry recently ordered to Fort Riley, Kan., will leave for that post as soon as the present troubles on the border are at an end

An Important Amendment to the Interstate Commerce Act.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Mr. Cullom sat in his seat Thursday ready to spring to his feet in defense of one of the amendments to the commerce act that was up for consideration. He was prepared for a fight, but, somewhat to his surprise, there was not a voice raised in opposition to the bill, and it went through without a dissenting vote The amendment was one which remedies the defect in the law found by the supreme court in the famous Counselman decision. It provides that no person shall be excused from testifying in any criminal case based upon any violation of the interstate commerce act on the ground that his testimony might tend to criminate himself or subject him to penalty or forfeiture. Such person shall not be prosecuted, however, on account of anything which he may testify to in any case, but he shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

(Second Session.)

SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan 6—To-day's session of the senate was given up exclusively to the discussion of the bill on the subject of the quarantine regulations and its correlative measure, the bill to suspend immigration for one year

Mr. Chandler (rep., N. H.) spoke for about three hours, devoting most of his argument to the last mentioned bill, although the other was really the one that was up for discussion To this latter, however, an amendment was pending to authorize the president to issue a proclamation suspending immigration from countries where cholera may be prevailing.

Mr Chandler treated this proposition as an act of cowardice on the part of congress, in imposing responsibility upon the president instead of taking that responsibility itself. He was assured by Mr. Frye (rep., Me.) that the incoming president was not a man to shrink from responsibility, alluding to Mr. Cleveland's position on the subject of the New York senatorship This provoked a laugh, and Mr. Chandler deprecated the Maine senator's bringing his witticism into a serious subject. He went on, in the course of his remarks, to speak of the recent entertainment given by the North German Lloyds Steamship Co. to the Gridiron club, and made some sarcastic allusions to the liberality of that company to government officials traveling in Europe.

Arguments against the quarantine bill were made by Senators McPherson (dem., N J.), Platt (rep., Conn.), Mills (dem., Tex.) and Dolph (rep., Ore.).

Many amendments were offered, some of which were agreed to, the others going over until to-morrow, when the bill comes up as the special order

HOUSE

In his prayer this morning the chaplain uttered a special invocation for divine protection for the governors and legislatures of the several states.

The speaker, after the approval of the journal and a fruitless call of committees for reports, stated that on December 17 a bill had been called up by Mr. Outhwaite extending the provisions of the act to provide for the muster and pay of certain officers and men of the volunteer forces. He further stated that upon that date no quorum had voted upon the measure and its consideration had been postponed until day.

Mr. Kilgore (dem., Tex.) suggested that the house had had no authority to make any order for postponement as there had been no quorum present.

The Speaker—No quorum voting.

As he uttered these words the speaker himself could not repress a smile, while a laugh went through the house which was more emphatic when Mr. Reed (rep., Me.) dryly remarked that he hoped that the gentleman from Texas would understand the distinction It was a perfectly legal one.

The bill was passed.

The house then proceeded to the consideration of the unfinished business—being private pension bills coming over from last session. Four or five were passed without opposition; but Mr Kilgore made the point of no quorum on the next, and a call of the house was ordered. One hundred and eighty-six members responded to their names.

Then about twenty-five private pension bills were passed without opposition and at 4:20 o'clock the house adjourned until to-morrow.

Cleveland's Opposition to Edward Murphy

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Since Mr. Cleveland has come out openly against Edward Murphy, Jr., as Hiscock's successor in the senate, Richard Croker, of Tammany hall, has been asked a dozen times a day if he thought it would change the president-elect and his policy against Tammany hall. Mr. Croker has steadily declined to answer this question. Yesterday he spoke about it for the first time. He was asked: "Do you think that if Mr. Murphy is elected senator Mr. Cleveland in return for it will take up a position hostile to Tammany hall?"

Mr. Croker hesitated for a moment and then said he did not think that Mr. Cleveland would do so. He spoke slowly "No," he said, "our friendship for Mr. Murphy will not make Mr. Cleveland hostile to the regular democracy of the state. Mr. Cleveland, is, I think, a man of too broad ideas, a man of too high ideas of political justice to allow himself to take such a step. That is my first reason for thinking so. My second reason is as cogent Tammany hall went to Chicago opposed to Mr. Cleveland We fought every inch of the ground until he was nominated. Then we came out in his support and stood by him to a man until he was elected Now Mr. Cleveland is opposed to us in the person of our candidate for senator, Mr. Murphy.

"The wishes of the regular democracy will be respected by the assembly, and Mr. Murphy will be elected. Mr. Cleveland is not the sort of man to turn on us because our candidate is elected. Common gratitude would be enough, for we did not turn on him when he was victorious. There is much," continued Mr. Croker, in answer to a question, "that is misunderstood about the contest for senator We are not hostile to Mr Cleveland just because Mr. Murphy, our candidate, is not Mr. Cleveland's choice; nor will Mr. Murphy oppose Mr. Cleveland if he is elected, which, of course, goes without saying. Mr. Cleveland does not know Mr Murphy's strong points. If he knew him as well as I do, in justice to Mr Cleveland I must say I think he would consider Mr. Murphy an able man and one fitted to represent the great state of New York in Washington.

"Mr. Murphy is not an orator, but he has wonderful executive ability. This, together with his other admirable qualifications, will make him a senator to be proud of. Mr. Cleveland will never have cause to regret the fact that the organized democracy of New York put Mr. Murphy up. His election is certain. I think he will get every democratic vote in the assembly."

The Week's Business and the Outlook, as Reported by R. G. Dun & Co.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—R. G Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The business of the new year opens well, though there has hardly been time as yet to get fairly under way In some branches of manufacturing there is a very conservative feeling owing to scantiness of satisfactory orders, but in the textile branches the extraordinary demand creates general confidence In every part of the country, and apparently in almost every branch of business the traders are looking forward to a year of large transactions. But in financial circles the year opens with a considerable feeling of uncertainty, owing to the revival of gold exports, which will be about $2,000,000 for the current week, and to the doubts about the action of Congress The annual reports of various branches of trade come in with fresh evidence of the unsurpassed prosperity and volume of business in 1892, but cast no clear light upon the future, which depends in large degree upon monetary influences.

The government crop report started a little stronger buying, but wheat soon reacted to 77⅞ cents, a decline of nearly 1⅛ cents for the week, western receipts in three days being over 2,000,000 bushels. In spite of as large receipts, corn gained over 1 cent for the week, and oats also, while pork rose $1 and lard 30 cents and hogs 50 cents per 100 pounds. Coffee is unchanged and oil 1⅛ cents stronger, but cotton showed no change, with sales of 500,000 bales Speculation in stocks is depressed by monetary anxiety, although reports of trade and other things continue more favorable. Government and other large disbursements make the money market easier, but bankers expect exports of gold to continue for some time.

Industrial reports are mainly confined to the unprecedented transaction of last year, but is from a weaker tone is manifest, with reports of reduced prices for pig by some southern concerns. Deliveries of rails for the past year were but 1,800,000 tons The capacity outruns the demand for finished products, so that markets are irregular and weak, though in structural steel from large business is in prospect The change in relations of the Lehigh & Reading does not yet affect prices of coal Copper and tin are well supported, but lead rather weak.

The most prosperous year ever known in textile manufacturers leaves the full production of most of the mills sold for months ahead and the new year opens with great strength in woolens and cottons

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number, for the United States, 323; and for Canada, 17; or a total of 340, as compared with a total of 335 for the corresponding week of last year, representing 338 failures in the United States and 42 in the Dominion of Canada

SCARCITY OF HOGS

The Real Cause of the High Prices of Pork Products.

NINETY DAYS OF INCESSANT RAIN

Interfered with the Planting of Corn and Led to the Sacrifice of the Young Porkers—The Limit Not Yet Reached.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Hogs and packing products reached the highest point in Chicago to-day for years, $10.65 for lard, and Cudahy and Wright were free sellers on the market. The highest established price was $8.85 for May pork, but some sales ran to the figure given above. Many reasons are given for these high prices, but they are all traced to a simple lack of hogs—that is all. "It is only that there are more buyers than sellers," was the sententious explanation given by Charles Wright. "The reasons are simple, yet it is due to an accident that prices are skyrocketing as they are. There are not enough hogs to supply the demand, and the scarcity in the products has got to be made up in price The spring of 1892 was a phenomenal one in a meteorological point. It rained ninety days in succession, just as a crop of young pigs was due, and as they are the least cared for of farm animals, they shifted for themselves, which was quite often a very poor shift. Then it rained so long that the farmers began to think they would not have a chance to plant any corn. What to do with the hogs was a question, with no corn to feed them on and a big crop of hogs to feed. They concluded that it would be better to take what they could get for their pork products than run chances of a lower price. The consequence was that there was a very free movement in pork last summer, which left a slim home contingent.

"Then there is another reason for the high price. When the upward movement commenced lots of brokers sold, thinking that the top had been reached. As the price went on up they out in again and sold, thinking as before, that the high notch had been reached. Then came another bulge and another cut in, and the folks are awfully short now."

Michael Cudahy said that the basis of high prices for pork, ribs and lard was simply a scarcity of the original article. He would not give any anterior reasons.

Col. Favorite, Armour's right-hand man, said: "There is a short supply of hogs, both in the city and the country, and, according to the evidence, the supply, or lack of supply, will continue for some time."

As long ago as last March John Cudahy and Charles Wright commenced buying pork and ribs, and continued to buy in the face of extremely large stocks. Other packers laughed at what was then deemed foolishness in buying, and on every advance sold to Cudahy and Wright, selling not only against hogs bought from day to day, but also selling short. It is now a case in which the hogs have not put in an appearance and some of the packers are short.

The first big trouble arose when they found that these two gentlemen had a corner on October ribs and put the price up to $12. T J. Ryan was caught in the squeeze and the trouble, or part of it, is still in litigation. That was supposed to be the culmination of the deal, but for some time past the receipts of hogs at various points have decreased one-half from the receipts in the corresponding weeks of the previous year, and it was in anticipation of such a state of affairs that these two gentlemen sold.

Yesterday Cudahy and Wright were free sellers, and it is thought that they unloaded over 50,000 barrels of pork through their brokers. Schwartz-Dupee sold about 20,000 barrels, and Cudahy's brokers about half that amount Capt Taylor and Mr. Roloson were selling all day Wright followed suit in person

A WORLD'S FAIR BALL.

A High-Toned Society Event at the Missouri State Capital.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 7.—The Cole county and Jefferson City World's Fair association last night gave a grand ball and supper in St. Peter hall. The event had long been looked forward to in society circles and brought together a brilliant assemblage, composed of the beauty and chivalry of the city, and elite of the capitol, including the governor and Mrs. Francis, all the state officers and their wives, judges of the supreme court and many members of the senate and house. The object of the ball is to raise money for purchasing furniture and furnishing the administration building at the World's fair at Chicago.

Arrested for Using the Mails to Circulate Counterfeit Money.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 7.—Morris Lane was yesterday arrested here for using the United States mails to do a business of circulating counterfeit money. A large quantity of the queer was found in his room. By the arrest of Lane, the United States authorities believe they have caught the leader of the gang who has been for the last eight months flooding Missouri with counterfeit bills so perfect in execution that they have almost defied detection. He was caught by means of decoy letters.

No Cholera Germs in the Arkansas Penitentiary.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 7.—Dr. Geddings, of the Marine hospital service, has completed his investigation and forwarded his report to Washington. He failed to find a single cholera germ in the discharges of deceased convicts. The disease was caused by the filthy condition of the penitentiary, which has been thoroughly cleaned and fumigated.

Capt. Schroeder's Statement.

HAMBURG, Jan. 7.—Capt. Schroeder of the Hamburg-American line steamer Bohemia has made a formal report of his encounter with the Cunarder Umbria and his unsuccessful effort to tow the Umbria into port. Capt. Schroeder states

"We met the Umbria at 7 o'clock on the morning of December 24, in lat. 43 n., long. 48 w. The Umbria was flying the white flags with three balls, a sign of distress. The Bohemia at once answered the Umbria's signals. The Umbria asked us to tow her to New York. We offered to tow her to Halifax. The Umbria replied: 'Halifax is a dangerous port for us to make.' We then responded: 'We will take you to New York' We then attached two new steel hawsers to the Umbria, the Umbria's thick wire cable being added to strengthen the connection. We towed the Umbria along slowly, everything holding firm. The wind was northeast and the sea was rough. About 7 o'clock in the evening the weather became stormy and the air was obscured by squalls of snow. Both vessels labored heavily. At 11:45 o'clock first the starboard hawser and then the port hawser broke. We signaled to the Umbria with lights and by blowing the siren. There was no response and the Umbria vanished out of sight. The wind shifted to the northwest, blowing nearly a gale. We hove to until morning, but saw no vessel and concluding that there was no prospect of being of any assistance, we proceeded on our voyage."

DESTROYED BY ICE.

A Heavy Gorge Above Cincinnati Lets Go,

CARRYING DESTRUCTION BEFORE IT.

Coal Barges and Floats Caught in the Immense Pack and Carried Down to Destruction—The Loss Will Exceed $100,000.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 7.—Thirteen years ago an ice gorge broke up at this port on the Ohio river with great destruction to property. Last evening a gorge broke with nobody knows what loss to boats and coal fleets. Heavy ice has been floating and forming up in the Ohio river for the past two or three days. No gorge was formed until at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The stage of the water here is fifteen feet. The ice gorged between the Louisville & Nashville bridge and the Cincinnati Southern railway bridge. Floating ice came down and joined the gorge. Below the river was clear. In this immense raft were locked all the coal fleets, the nine packets and several tow boats. At 4:30 o'clock this immense body of ice began to move in a solid mass. The packets and tow boats escaped with little or no injury. On the other hand, every coal fleet suffered. The principal destruction is to the following: The Pittsburgh Coal Co., four barges and two floats, value, $10,000; Collier, Budd & Co., four barges and several floats, value, $10,000.

These were on the Ohio side of the river. Just opposite them at Ludlow, Ky., Mr. Bush lost sixteen barges valued at $40,000. Seven miles further down the river is Addison on the Ohio side of the river. Here two barges and three floats have been taken away, valued at $10,000.

These are all the losses definitely ascertained. Other inevitable incidental losses are estimated at $50,000, making a total of $100,000.

But the danger is not over, and the situation is still threatening. In the front of the upper gorge are located the coal boats and barges which have not gone down. Behind them is three miles of ice. There seems scarcely a possibility of saving any of the property in this prison of ice. The river above is open, but ice is floating heavy.

There Has Been No Trouble at Bakersville, and None is Expected.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 7.—Two correspondents sent by the Citizen to Bakersville, N. C., Wednesday, returned here last night worn out and disgusted, having traveled nearly 100 miles with horses and in a continuous snow storm. They say there has been no trouble whatever at Bakersville, nor is there reason to expect any

A Glass Eye Produces a Serious Disturbance.

LONDON, Jan 7.—The Shang-Hai correspondent of the Times says that almost a riot was caused in Nankin recently by missionaries providing a Chinese boy with a glass eye to take the place of one he had lost. There was great excitement for awhile among the fanatics of the place. An outbreak was checked by the timely interference of the officials. The arrival of the United States man-of-war Monocacy assisted in maintaining peace.

Pushing Commercial Negotiations.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 7.—The Belgian government has asked France whether the rejection of the proposed commercial treaty with Switzerland, to which the French chamber of deputies recently refused consent, implies a similar refusal on the part of France to treat liberally with Belgium Pending a reply from France, the Belgian government is vigorously pusing commercial negotiations with other European countries and also with the United States.

NOTHING SO GOOD for the CHILDREN.

The universal testimony of those who have used Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure is that for the ailments of childhood it is the best thing in the world. The following from a worthy resident of St. Louis shows that it always produces the desired result:

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 7, 1892.

Sylvan Remedy Co.—Gentlemen: I want to say to you for the benefit of the public that I have used your Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure for my little girl and boy and I claim that it has saved the life of my little girl. She out her teeth on the lungs and was very bad. Nothing gave her relief until I used your Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure and then she got better right away. My little boy had whooping cough but I had no trouble with him for I used your Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure. Any mother that has a child with whooping cough or any lung trouble, let her get a bottle of your Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure and she will save herself many a dollar; not that alone, but save her child's life, which is more than all the world to a mother. Hoping that this will be of benefit to the public, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
MRS ELLEN DUEVER,
1804 North Broadway, St. Louis, Mo

DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

SATURDAY EVE., JAN 7, 1893

SAMUEL GOMPERS is in favor of abolishing the steerage for immigrants entirely and the total restriction of immigration for one year.

THE new Michigan legislature proposes to promptly repeal the so called "Miner law" under which all but two of the electors of that state were chosen this year by congressional districts

TAMMANY has been accorded the right of the line of the civic portion of the parade at the inauguration. Somebody seems determined to cram Tammany, Murphy and all down the throat of the man who is better than his party

A SEVENTEEN year-old-boy who works in a bicycle repair shop in Brooklyn has invented a bicycle skate which is simply a skate attachment to the front wheel of an ordinary safety bicycle. The propelling power is in the hind wheel

THE equal suffrage association, in Kansas City, has formally condemned train skirts, and has arbitrarily declared in favor of skirts that in no case shall approach the ground at a closer range than three inches Other associations should take note of this new reform.

THERE may be Democrats, Republicans, Socialists, Populists and Anarchists —in Chicago; and there may be factions within each of these district organizations, but when it comes to an opinion as to how many congressmen Cook county is entitled, under the new appointment, there seems to be a wonderful and spontaneous uniformity in the action of the gray matter in these diffigerent and otherwise discordant brains. They all, with one accord, say Cook county is entitled to seven.

THE Democratic press still continues to charge that the Republicans are trying to steal the United States senate, but they carefully avoid mentioning the fact that a Democratic governor in New Jersey, is pardoning out of the penitentiary, the small army of Democrats who were sent there for election frauds, and they also forgot to mention that Gov. Flower has just appointed to the supreme branch, in New York, a man whose qualifications for that position, is the fact that he helped to steal the New York legislature

SPINGFIELD Journal: Illinois passes out of Republican control out of debt, and with a large surplus in the treasury. In Tennessee the condition is very different At the outset of the legislative session the people are informed that the state will have to borrow $200,000 to meet the semi-annual interest on its debt The administration of state affairs has always been in Democratic hands The Memphis Appeal-Avalanche in discussing the situation says the people are getting very weary of the continuance of this sort of management, and remarks that "there is a plentiful lack' of information on the part of those charged with the financial administration as to what the revenues and expenditures are" Imagine the people of Illinois submitting to such conduct of the state government' In this state every citizen knows exactly where the money goes, even though it may be only the expenditure of two cents for a postage stamp

THE Chicago Evening Journal gets it down about right when it says, Clayton Crafts took up the gravel of the speaker of the state house of representatives yesterday, for the second time, and made it the occasion of giving his party some good advise, mixed with a little political buncombe. He reminded his fellow Democrats that with their victory has come responsibility; but that won t alarm or weary the average politican of that party —he dosen't know what it is The speaker said further that it became them "to illustrate to the people of this great commonwealth that their officials are purer and wiser and their principles more conducive to good government than those they have denounced." That, Mr Speaker, will be an impossible thing to do—even though your associates are, as you urge them to be, as bold in carrying out their principles as they were in making them The so called principles of your party are mostly mythical except that one which calls for the spoils of office—in following that one there will be no lack of boldness '

CONGRESSMAN SCOTT charges that the administration has postponed the erection of public buildings, voted by congress, in its effort to prevent depletion of the treasury It is very remarkable that the average Democrat goes into a state of frenzy over the fact that there will be a reasonable balance in the treasury when the Democrats come into power. The present Democratic congress, by its extravagance, has done what it could to bankrupt the treasury, but it has failed, and on the 4th of March the Democratic party will have to shoulder the responsibilities of conducting public affairs. They ought to assume that responsibility like men and statesmen; but instead of doing that, there is every indication that they are trying to devise plans by which they can lay the blame for their own shortcomings on the Republican party. They may be able to deceive some of the more ignorant people in this way, but the intelligent masses will expect the Democratic party to abandon its past methods of whining about public affairs and charging the Republican party with inefficiency, and get down to business and show the country whether it can make the country more prosperous than the Republicans have made it This they declared they would do if given power. They now have the power, and the country wants them to keep their promises and not make excuses.

Fined for Being Killed

Chicago Mail: The law that limits the value of a human life to $5,000 ought to be the first wiped from the statute book. It ought to be the chief topic of the governor's message. It ought to be abrogated forthwith regardless of party. Its expungement ought to have been incorporated in the platform of every party that nominated state candidates last year.

No month passes that does not see in the courts of this country some man mulcted by accident recovering a greater amount than the $5,000; while the man cut off in his prime leaves as a sole heritage the right to recover what at the most is less than $6 a week. He may have been a man worth million to the state, a Lincoln or a Grant; he may have been able to earn, as George Gould did, $5,000,000 in four years; he may have left as charges upon the state a brood of little ones and a helpless widow; he may have been slaughtered under circumstances of peculiar atrocity—the petty $5,000 is the maximum that may be recovered in what are mismamed courts of justice.

It is doubtful if a law so brazen in its protection of iniquity, so desperately opposed to human rights, is constitutional.

Suppose the legislature fixed a value on a man's property, setting $5 000 as all that could be recovered in a suit under a contract! Is it not preposterous? But who values his goods more than his life?

A property limitation opens the doors to the grossest faults. Already it is whispered that the low value of a life has made it cheaper to kill than to maim, and that life after life flickers and goes out through corporate economy.

Do not fine a man's family because he was killed. Make the negligent corporation pay full value for the lives they take, even as they have to pay for the land they take. Don't be accessory to murder.

Don't Want His Ox Gored.

The new senator from Louisiana is of course a Democrat and a ranting free trader—that is to say he, like other southern senators, is anxious to remove the protective tariff duties from those foreign goods the like of which are made in the north and to protect which these duties are applied, but opposed to removing those tariffs which protect southern industries. This senator is opposed to the removal of the present sugar bounty unless sugar is put on the dutiable list Here is Democratic consistency for you, and yet it has been a common thing with these southern people, and they are the power within the Democratic party that c mmits that party to free trade When it comes to a free trade tariff these people ought not insist upon protective duties on sugar, rice, southern fruits and tobacco. Either these southern leaders ought to be consistent or the northern Democrats ought to be.

JUST FULL of improvements — Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. To begin with, they're the smallest, and the easiest to take. They're tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Every child is ready for them.

Then, after they're taken, instead of disturbing and shocking the system, they act in a mild, easy and natural way. There's no chance for any reaction afterward. Their help lasts. Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

They're put up in glass vials, which keeps them always fresh and reliable, unlike the ordinary pills in wooden or pasteboard boxes.

And they're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

IT is said of the late Jacob Henrici, the venerable chief of the Economites, that his life was as free from guile as if he had never came in contact with the world.

A Mother's Mistake.

Mothers frequently make a mistake in neglecting the cough of a child. A Fort Wayne, Ind., lady writes: My little daughter, 6 years old, had a severe cough but as it was nothing unusual I thought nothing of it, and allowed it to run on for four or five weeks, when it became so obstinate she began losing flesh. I called in a physician who treated her three weeks without benefit. A neighbor insisted upon my trying Ballard's Horehound Syrup; it relieved her from the first dose and she began gaining flesh rapidly, and when we had used two bottles her cough had entirely disappeared, I would not be without it. It does not constipate my children. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is free from opiates. It's the most soothing Throat and Lung medicine in the world. LOOK AT LAPE.

Organized Labor Against Him—Who Will Get the Place?

The friends of Hon. B. K. Durfee are not without hope. They believe that he is yet likely to secure the appointment from Altgeld as member of the state board of railroad and warehouse commissioners, and that he will draw the salary of $5,500 a year. Some weeks ago it was said that Mr. Durfee's prospects were very bright, but soon after Charley Lape of the Wabash, alleged to represent organized labor, came to the front, but recently there has developed strong opposition to Lape.

INTERVIEW.

"Altgeld first led us to believe that he would give us one of the three members on that board. To our committees who called on him he spoke to the same effect. He even sent for our committees, asking them to call on him to confer as to that question. He has appointed no one yet. But he declines to appoint the man whom we had selected, ex-Representative W. E. Barnes, who is now working on his engine on the Illinois Central road. Barnes was rejected because when in the house he championed the Employers' Liability bill. His candidacy for the place was pushed by the engineers, firemen, conductors and others.

"Altgeld said: 'Name several men for me to select from.' The names of J. H. Welsh of Chicago, an engineer on the Rock Island road, and of John Kirk of Joliet, a switchman on the Chicago and Alton road, were then presented. Now these three men are in the field, but it seems the workingmen will not be recognized, but that corporations will be. Promises were made that of the three men appointed to this board one should be a business man, one a farmer, and one a railroad employe. From the best information we can obtain Altgeld will appoint Ald. Gahan, who is a contractor and a representative of the corporate interests of the stock yards; Cantrell from southern Illinois, who is a corporation lawyer; and Charles F. Lape, a railroad official; assistant master mechanic of the Wabash at Springfield, and a man who does not belong to any labor union, but, in fact, opposes them."

The appointments of the new governor will probably be announced during the coming week.

Whist Party.

A most delightful whist party was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. W. B. Chambers at her home on North Church street between the hours of 2:30 and 5 p. m. Drive whist was the game. The first prize, a fancy silver spoon, was won by Mrs. O. B. Gorin, and the second prize, a silver pin, was taken by Mrs. E. D. Bartholomew. Refreshments were served on the card tables. Mrs. Chambers was assisted in receiving by her daughters, Mrs. Albert Barnes, Mrs. L. L. Bane and Miss Jennie Chambers. The guests were Mesdames J. K. Warren, E. D. Bartholomew, Geo. S. Durfee, B. K. Durfee, O. B. Gorin, F. M. Pratt, J. M. Clokey, M. M. Goodwin, Edward Carter, W. J. Quinlan, J. E. Bering, J. M. Maris, James Millikin, W. E. Nelson, R. L. Walston, Samuel Young, B. O. McReynolds, V. G. Hatch, W. R. Abbott, Cass Chenoweth, H. O. Johns, Wm. Barnes and F. L. Hays. Regrets were received from Mesdames Catto and Voorhies.

Decatur Affected.

The President has decided upon the scope of the proposed extension of the civil service law. He will in a day or two issue an order putting all free delivery postoffices under the operation of the law. Only the largest postoffices are now under civil service regulation. The extension will protect clerks and carriers in all of the small offices which have free delivery. The effect will be to put fifteen or twenty postoffices in Illinois under civil service and to disappoint the hopes of a good many Democrats. Will the Decatur force stay?

Invited.

This morning Captain Grist of Decatur Division, Uniform Rank, K. P., received a richly embossed symbolic invitation for himself and the division to attend the first annual ball of Division 68, to be held in the Scroggin opera house at Mt. Pulaski on Thursday evening, January 19th. The music will be by Prof. French's orchestra. Sir Knights Bakemeyer, Vetters, Snyder and Vanderleith are members of the principal committees. No doubt Decatur Pythians will be represented at the ball on the historical hill.

Review Office Fire.

Old papers too near the fire box of the up-right boiler in the Review office last evening caused a big blaze and a roast for the wooden partition and ceiling, drawing a big crowd, and calling out the entire fire department. The No. 1 Chemical crew saved the day and the Review escaped with slight damage. John Drennan was slightly scorched on the hands and face by attempting to form himself into a hollow square to put out the fire alone. It was to hot for him and he fled to a cooler place.

A Noted Musical Event.

The Thomas Chicago Orchestra concert at the Grand next Thursday evening, Jan. 12, should attract attention from all classes of our citizens. While the program will be popular in character it nevertheless includes some of the most charming compositions of the great masters. Mr. Thomas' well known skill in devising programs is clearly exhibited in the selections chosen for this concert. This will be the musical event of the season.

Tom at Chicago.

Tom Ponting, of Mowequa, Ill., marketed two loads of big Hereford stags that made $4.50. They were bought here last fall at $2.15, and yet Uncle Tom fancies they did not pay for all that fancy feed he provided for the lot. But then some men are never satisfied.—Chicago Journal, 6th.

WILL DECATUR GET IT?

In the Contest for the State Fair—The Board to Meet January 16.

Power of the Legislature to Locate the Big Show Permanently—Decatur will Have, to Hustle.

The time is drawing near when the great question of permanently locating the state fair will have to be settled. The State Board of Agriculture, of which S. W. Johns of this city is a member for the Fourteenth District, will meet at Springfield on Tuesday, January 10th, for the sole purpose of considering the state fair question.

Decatur will be represented at that meeting and so will Springfield, Peoria and Bloomington. There will be opportunity for extra lobbying, and the best workers having the best financial backing and fair sites to present will make the best impression. It is a matter of business with the board. They will probably act for the best interests of all the people of the state, and if they do so the fair must come to Decatur.

PRESIDENT GORE SPEAKS.

After all it is possible that the state board may not locate the fair. It may not attempt to do so. The legislature will probably take the responsibility upon itself. This paragraph is taken from the Bloomington Leader of last evening:

Hon. John Eddy has returned from Springfield, as noted yesterday. During his brief stay down there he did some work in the way of looking up the matter of the state fair location, for which Bloomington is a candidate. In conversation with President Gore of the agricultural board that gentleman told Mr. Eddy that, in all probability, the state legislature would fix the location. The board wants the body to take hold of the matter, and will use all endeavors to that end. In the event this is done, the committees of the various cities which want the fair will have to go before the legislature to make their fight. Bloomington's committee will be on hand when the time comes, whether it be before the legislature or the board.

In either event Decatur's committee should be on hand Tuesday and every business day thereafter to guard our interests and work for the prize.

At the recent mass meeting of Decatur citizens, held to take preliminary action on the fair, these committees were appointed;

To obtain options on suitable grounds —D. S. Shellabarger, John Ullrich, S. S. Jack, James Millikin, R. R. Montgomery, John E. Miller and D. W. Brenneman.

On Finance—W. H. Starr, C. M. Hurst, G. A. Keller, T. A. Powers and B. K. Durfee.

The members of the two committees were empowered to appoint a sub-committee to go to Springfield and represent Decatur at the meeting of the state board. That committee will be named tonight.

There are several suitable fair ground sites with excellent railroad facilities near Decatur. All of our advantages will be properly represented.

Katie Emmett in "Killarney."

The attraction next Wednesday evening, January 11th, at the Grand, will be the charming actress, Katie Emmett, in her new Irish play, "Killarney." Miss Emmett is one of the best known and best liked comediennes upon the stage. As "Willis Rufus," the newsboy, in "The Waifs of New York," she made an enviable reputation in this city, and her coming in a new play will be received with much delight. In "Killarney" she will be seen in a dual role, that of an Irish colleen and a stupid, blundering Irish boy. Miss Emmett has the support of one of the best companies traveling, and the scenic effects are notably fine, embracing correct views of actual scenes at Killarney, Ireland, where the action of the play transpires. The costuming of the play is beautiful and historically correct of the period in which the play is laid, 1783 to 1785, just after the close of the War of the Revolution.

Lawler's Installation.

A large delegation of Grand Army men from all parts of Wisconsin will go to Rockford, Ill., Wednesday next, to be present at the twenty-fifth consecutive installation of Thomas G. Lawler as commander of Grand Army Post No. 1, of that city. The affair is regarded as a national event in Grand Army circles, and military notables from all over the country will be present. Several special trains will be run out of Chicago. Commander-in-Chief Weissert, of Wisconsin, will be the installing officer. The affair will be public and will take place in the opera house.

Election of Officers.

At a meeting of Decatur Council of the Royal League held last evening officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Archon—H. P. Page.
Vice-Archon—D. W. Hellman.
Orator—Frank K. Lathrop.
Past Archon—L. A. Mills.
Scribe and Collector—Ellis W. Armstrong.
Treasurer—A. C. Race.
Prelate—I. N. Martin, jr.
Guide—J. N. Starr.
Warder—Harry Starr.
Sentry—A. L. McNabb.
Trustees—Rev. W. H. Pennington, H. A. Wood, J. S. Starr.

An Art Tour.

Whether you go abroad or not, you cannot afford to miss the Illustrated Art Tour Lectures at the Christian church next week by Mrs. Crary. Gen. Lew Wallace, author of "Ben-Hur" says of them: "I was so charmed with Mrs. Kate Crary's entertainments as to go to them night after night, with fresh and unfailing interest, and take pleasure in commending them to all who have memories or hope of travel." Tickets for the course of six lectures, $1. Begins Monday evening, Jan. 9th. 6d3t

A PROMISING PATENT.

Bloomingtonians Invent a Device that Fills a Long-Felt Want in the Household.

Mr. Fred Smith, manager of the Consolidated Tank Line, has recently patented an oil can which promises a fortune. With this can it is absolutely impossible to spill any oil while filling lamps. Once the lamp is full, no more oil can be forced from the can. Prof. Graham, of the Wesleyan, is interested in the invention with Mr. Smith, and they have been offered a loan of $7,000 without interest for two years by enterprising citizens of Gibson, if they will agree to establish a factory there. They prefer to locate in Bloomington, and will accept a similar offer here, giving the patent and machinery a security—Bloomington Bulletin.

A Plea for English Sparrows.

The English sparrow has found a much needed friend in the Pennsylvania Ornithological association, according to the Detroit Free Press. At the last meeting of the association Dr. Hazzard took up the cause of the much-abused bird, and while he admitted that he had been guilty in times past of most of the sins laid to his charge, declared that he is reforming. In the course of his address he cited many very interesting facts to show that the "pest," as he is commonly called, is becoming much less aggressive and more considerate than he was. The song-birds, the robins, woodpeckers, bluebirds and yellow warblers whom he is charged with having driven away from the cities are returning each year in increasing numbers and building their nests in the accustomed spots; and this, the doctors think, is strong testimony to the improvement in the habits and disposition of the sparrow.

The doctor is right, but there is still abundant room for improvement. It would not be a bad idea to form a society for the encouragement of the sparrow in his endeavors to reform himself; and effort might very profitable be spent in the direction of teaching him to be cleaner and less pugnacious. If he was clean and peaceable and would give the other birds a fair chance he would be an interesting visitor, especially in the winter, when birds are scarce. How much of the improvement the doctor has found is due to the increasing substitution of the sparrow for the reed bird he does not say; and perhaps it is not best to raise that question.

Great Show To-Night.

The famous Howard Athenæum Star Specialty Co. will be seen at the Grand to-night. It is larger and better than ever. Miss Bertoldi, the wonderful contortionist, whose work created such a furore here last year, is still with the company. Kara, the handsome Belgian juggler, and A. O. Duncan, the ventriloquist, are also old favorites who are retained. The new members are Marguerite Fish Baby Senson, who was the original Cinderella in "The Crystal Slipper," assisted by Charles Warren, the eccentric comedian, James Warren and Alden in new songs and funny sayings; Will H. Fox, in his musical burlesque, "Padewhiski," the De Forrests, in "Don Dancing;" Carrie Joy, the greatest of English ballad singers, and Servais Le Roy, the great Belgian conjurer.

New Firm and New Goods.

Davidson and Eyman, the new grocery firm next door to Imboden's meat market, are starting out with encouraging prospects. The firm is running a first-class store, and keeps the goods the people want. They are making a specialty of fresh vegetables of all kinds, including lettuce, celery, cauliflower and parsley, which they have on sale now every day, and also oysters in can or bulk, as well as canned goods of all kinds, fresh country butter and eggs and everything carried by all first-class grocery houses. This new house is entitled to the attention of our people. jan6-d1w

Opera Comique.

A New York correspondent says in speaking of "Corinne," who appears at the Grand Tuesday evening, Jan. 10: Through all the surprising excellence of her movements, songs, gestures, looks and by-plays, there was ever present that sublime beauty and tenderness, of positive purity and guilelessness that belong only to her whose spirit has no more been tarnished by the ill humors of the world than a ray of rosy sunlight of the morning has been affected by the pestilent vapors within which it had been shrouded the previous night.

In the Push.

George W. Powers has added a new feature to his popular boot and shoe house in Haworth Block. He has secured the services of Mr. Hammond, a skilled New York shoemaker, and that gentleman has a department at the store where fine repair work is done promptly and well. No waits. All work done without delay.

Vacated.

Governor and Mrs. J. W. Fifer left for Bloomington, taking with them their household effects. Mrs. Fifer will remain in Bloomington, but the governor will return to-day. The executive mansion is now ready for the occupancy of Governor-elect Altgeld, but he has not yet sent word as to when he will take possession.—Springfield Journal 6th.

Altgeld will probably move in next week. In the meantime Gov. Fifer will be a guest at the Leland.

THE JAIL CASES.

Sheriff Perl's Prisoners Waiting to Secure Liberty.

Court season is a time of special interest to all litigants, but none give court matters more earnest consideration than the jail-birds, who are held for various infractions of the law, and remain in jail, involuntary guests of Sheriff Perl, because they cannot give bail. There are now sixteen persons in the county jail waiting judgment. They will probably get it as soon as Judge Vail can reach the cases on the docket. Those now in custody are:

John Caldwell, robbery.
John Tyler, robbery.
James Canfield, confidence game.
Josie Dennis, robbery.
James Woodruff, burglary and larceny.
Reuben Spurlin, burglary and larceny.
D. F. Mitchell, larceny.
Ella Murphy, larceny.
Peter Smith, burglary and larceny.
Otto Parro, burglary and larceny.
Hattie Mannaugh, lewd house.
Ferry Croy, burglary.
John Day, attempted outrage.
John Hufner, attempted outrage.
George Gephart, petit larceny.
William Helms, burglary and larceny.

Parties arrested and now out on bail are: L. H. Strohm, of Sunday Sun notoriety; Laura Brown and Josie King, for keeping lewd houses, and Peter White, for assault. They will appear at the opening of court Monday, and attend every day.

Other parties in jail serving out sentences are as follows: George Powers, five months for assault; Lou Rude, 30 days for assault; George Downey, $48 fine for flourishing weapon on train, committed; Pacer and George Smith, fined $30 for assault and committed; John Shay, vagrancy, six months; James Gay, vagrancy, 20 days; John Ray, vagrancy, 20 days; Joe Smith, vagrancy, 25 days.

THE THIRTEEN CLUB.

Swindled the Farmers.

A telegram states that the farmers of Piatt county have been extensively swindled by J. C. Nichols, representing himself as agent for the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance company He wrote policies for them and took their notes for the premiums, amounting to over $1,000, and sold the notes to the bank. The farmers have heard nothing of Mr. Nichols or their policies, as the agreement called for. E. H. Elworth, the Chicago manager, writes one of the victims that Nichols was not an agent for the company.

True as Steele.

Patrick Henry, the American Patriot and orator, in the Virginia convention in 1765 said. "I have but one lamp by which my feet are guided, and that is the lamp of experience. I know of no way of judging of the future, but by the past." Let this standard be applied and as you have always been treated fairly by the Ed. Denz & Son clothing house in the past, you may rely on all future orders for matchless clothing which you may place with them.

Short One Horse.

This morning a highly prized family driving horse, the property of Ahrens & Damrow, came to grief at the Davis auditorium barn. He was kicked by another horse and had a leg broken, rendering him useless. He was promptly killed and put out of danger.

"MAY BE CALLED OUT."

The Local Militiamen in Something of a Nervous State.

The regular meeting of the Decatur Guards, Illinois National Guard, was held last night at the Armory, when Lieut.-Col. Frank P. Wells inspected the troops, and found the boys, arms and accoutrements in good shape for service. Captain Colladay was in command. As usual the Captain addressed the Guards, and before he closed he remarked that the Guards should continue to be faithful in attendance and drill, as they might be called out at any time. He had often said that before, but no special weight has been given to the words. This time, however, the boys have given the warning more serious thought, and yet there is no trouble ahead which can be devined just now. Possibly there was no more meaning than usual in the warning.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. D. Holland is in Chicago on business.

AN AFTERNOON FIRE

on East Cerro Gordo Street Caused Damage to the Extent of $1500.

An alarm was turned in about 1 o'clock to-day to the fire department calling them to No. 151 East Cerro Gordo street to extinguish the flames in the house occupied by Messrs. Waddell Swartz and Stivers and their families. The fire started in the northwest corner of the house. A stove setting too near the corner of the room ignited the woodwork and after getting a good start the flames ran up to and in the garret, where the roof caught fire. The fire department boys quickly responded to the call and fought bravely. They are still engaged on the building. The roof and upper rooms of the residence are burned and damaged by the water and flames, entailing a loss of $1,000. The property is owned by O. E. and Frank Curtis and is fully insured.

The household effects of the tenants were destroyed to the extent of nearly $500. Messrs. Waddell and Stivers are the proprietors of the livery stable just across the street.

Hunger Will Soon Drive Them Back to Work.

BERLIN, Jan. 7.—The strikers in the Saar and other mining districts number 93,000, and include many women, who are determined to fight to the bitter end.

Many of the men are anxious to return to work. At meetings held yesterday those present were chiefly women. There is much suffering among the strikers, and it is thought that hunger will soon drive them back to work.

Five Years for Manslaughter.

KNOX, Ind., Jan. 7.—The jury in the trial of Ernestine Kersting for assisting her mother in murdering her stepfather, Nicholas Gerardy, near San Pierre, a small town west of here, on the night of September 1, 1892, returned a verdict at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, after being out fifteen minutes. The defendant was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to five years in the reformatory. The defense asked for a new trial and will get it.

An Absconding Bank Teller Arrested.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 7.—William H. Pope, teller of the City national bank of this city, who on March 1, 1890, absconded with $70,000 of the bank's funds, has been arrested at Starke, Fla. He has been positively identified by Mr. Joseph L. Teltenkampf, agent for the Louisville & Nashville road at Jacksonville, Fla., formerly of this city. Detectives left yesterday afternoon to bring the prisoner home.

Diphtheria in Indiana Mining Towns.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Jan. 7.—The secretary of the board of health yesterday received a report from Coal Bluff and Fontanet, mining towns in this county, that malignant diphtheria is raging all through that country, and that the number of cases is increasing daily. The epidemic which prevailed in this city to the extent of 500 cases and nearly 100 deaths up to January is now abating.

LOGAN LETTER.

The REPUBLICAN is indebted to J. T. Roberts, dealer in grain, provisions and stocks, with correspondents in Chicago, New York, Minneapolis and St. Louis, for the following F. G. Logan & Co.'s market letter received over the Roberts private wire.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 7, 1893.

The wheat market has been steady with narrow fluctuations. Lowest for May 78⅝, highest 79 It closed at 78⅝. We cannot add anything to our views expressed for the last few days. On declines of about a cent it is safe to buy for as much profit. Corn opened at about last night's close, 40¾, and ranged between that point and 46¾. Trade was light and almost entirely local. The tone steady and the tendency seems higher. Oats dull and neglected. May closed 34⅝.

The provision market continues in the same nervous state. Local longs have been free sellers on the advance, but the market nevertheless closes at practically the highest point of the day. We require more hogs to put the market down. Estimated hogs for Monday 30,000; for next week 145,000. Closing price May, $10.70. May lard $10.77. Ribs, $9 67.
